MAC Source Communications Opens New Office in New York City

Release Date: March 14, 2011

MAC Source Communications, Inc., a leading provider of telecommunications solutions, announced today that it has opened an office in New York City to service the growing demand for MAC Source's Unified Communication's solutions in the northeastern U.S. The NYC office expands MAC Source's ability to offer local sales and support services to its fast growing base of customers and prospects in the region.

Leading this new endeavor is Al Koplitz, Director of Sales. Al brings with him 20+ years of experience in the telecommunications industry. Joining his team are: Christian Asare, Lisa Brooks, Jim Emerson, Joy Menary, Eugene Price, and Odila Roman.

"We have seen a significant growth in our customer base and level of interest in our products and solutions, said Al Koplitz, Director of MAC Source's New York City Office. "Our proximity to this growing customer base will allow us to better deliver the communication solutions companies need to increase revenue"

The new office is located at 1140 Broadway, Suite 201, New York, New York 10001 and the main number is (646) 755-9100.
